

The creation of Assistant Secretaries and Deputy Assistant Secretaries contemplated in the initial draft of the budget added extra layers of bureaucracy in the Department of Employment and Training that were not intended by the General Assembly when the Department was organized in 1983, and are not justified. Therefore, the General Assembly has abolished a Deputy Assistant Secretary position in this program.

The intent of the abolition is not to cause the firing of the individual in the position, but is intended to reduce an unnecessary level of bureaucracy. If the Secretary believes that the individual is a satisfactory State employee, the Secretary shall use a vacant position to establish a Director position ~~(Grade-XXI)--for--the--individual~~ and return the person to his previous level.
